REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

Today we remember and pray for those who died in the course of wars and conflicts. They sacrificed their lives for us. William Shakespeare says, "Praising what is lost makes the remembrance dear". We praise their bravery; we appreciate their heroism; we commend their sacrifice. It is very necessary we remember them for Maya Angelou says, "How important it is for us to recognize and celebrate our heroes and she-roes" To them Laurence Binyon says "They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them".

As we remember them today, we pray that God will grant them eternal rest. We also pray that the world would no longer experience wars and conflicts. Like Eve Merriam said, "I dream of giving birth to a child who will ask: 'mother, what was war'". The world needs love, peace, kindness, justice, equity, and fairness, understanding and tolerance. Let's make the world a wonderful place to be. It begins with you and me. LET LOVE LEAD!!! I wish a blessed Sunday!!!
FR BEDE

You can start it at any time and don't have to collect all the items. If you are unable to collect some, or all, of the things, please feel free to make a small donation instead. A 20p donation covers the cost of a mug of tea or coffee.
